July 01, 2024

Greetings,

It is our pleasure to once again announce the beginning of the annual Tejano Music Awards nominations process. Please find the specific guidelines and nominations forms in this package for 2024.

The eligibility period for the 44th annual Tejano Music Awards is from January 01, 2023, through December 31, 2023. Only material released during the eligibility period will qualify. Do not submit material released from January through December 2022 or materials previously submitted. One exception is in the single release category. Singles released from a 2022 or a single from a 2024 CD released in 2023 will qualify for the Song of the Year category only (Submitted songs will not qualify for future nominations). The Entertainer of the Year winner will be selected by a special committee appointed by the board of directors. Qualifying Tejano Norteño submissions will be considered to qualify in the Tejano or Conjunto Album of the Year category on a case-by-case basis.

When submitting your nomination forms please include two (2) CD's (failure to submit your CD's will disqualify your entry). We must be able to verify that the CD was actually released within the qualifying period. Therefore, please also include a direct link to your online CD vendors to allow us to verify your submission (i.e. Spotify, Apple Music, etc.).

Send your CD's and bio to:

TTMA
331 Verde Dr.
Clute, TX 77531
Attn: Bino G.

NOTE: Do not send oversized packages or packages with incorrect postage. TTMA Will not be responsible for accepting these packages.

Please read the guidelines carefully since they are here for your information and to review any changes that may have been made to the criteria, categories, and/or voting process. Failure to follow these instructions prolongs the vetting process and may disqualify you from participating. If you have any questions, send an e-mail to: admin@tejanomusicawards.com

Good luck to everyone.

Frank H. Salazar,
Vice-president,

NOTE: The TTMA board of directors reserves the right to make changes as needed to the criteria, categories, nominations process, and/or voting process presented in this document.

Specific Guidelines

Record companies, group managers, artists, and/or artists representatives must submit entries eligible for the current period. The eligibility period for the 44th annual Tejano Music Awards is from January 01, 2023, through December 31, 2023.

Only material released during the eligibility period will qualify (exception will be for single releases only).

Group managers and/or representatives must have full authority to act on behalf of the record label or artist.

Verification Form must be signed by a representative authorized to nominate. Verification form must be submitted with nomination(s) or nomination(s) will not be considered for the current eligibility period. Only official Tejano Music Awards forms will be considered per artist or group.

NOTE: The TTMA board of directors reserves the right to make changes as needed to the criteria, categories, nominations process, and/or voting process presented in this document.

ANNUAL TEJANO MUSIC AWARDS

San Antonio, Texas

OVERVIEW

Since 1980 the Tejano Music Awards and various other special events produced by Texas Talent Musicians Association (TTMA) have provided a forum to create greater awareness and appreciation for Tejano music. This music format has been a tradition in the state of Texas and has transcended regional and cultural boundaries throughout the United States as well as internationally.

TTMA is committed to providing the best Tejano recording artists to the world.

MISSION STATEMENT

Texas Talent Musicians Association (TTMA) is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to promote professional excellence; a better understanding and greater appreciation for Tejano music; and to provide a public forum for songwriters, performers and musicians in order to recognize their artistic efforts and achievements through the annual Tejano Music Awards and related events.

TMA VOTING PHASES

VOTING PROCESS FOR GENERAL BALLOT

PHASE I Nominations

Originate from record companies, group managers, artists, and/or representatives. Nominees may begin submitting qualified materials Monday, July 01, 2024. Qualified materials will be accepted through midnight Sunday July 28, 2024. TTMA reviews and submits nominations to the Nominating and Screening Committee for verification and eligibility.

PHASE II Industry Voting

Qualified nominees are placed on the Industry Ballot and ballot is placed on the TTMA web site for voting by qualifying industry voters. In phase II the Top twelve (12) nominees in each category will be selected. Only record companies, group managers, artists, and/or representatives are allowed to vote in this phase. Industry voting period begins Monday, August 12, 2024, and ends Sunday, August 25, 2024. Ballots must be postmarked and received by TTMA no later than midnight Sunday, August 25, 2024. CPA will tabulate ballots and submit the top twelve (12) nominees in each category to TTMA.

PHASE III Official General Public Voting

The top twelve (12) nominees will be placed on the TTMA web site by category Tuesday, September 10, 2024, for voting by Tejano Music Fans. General public voting period ends midnight on Sunday, September 29, 2024. CPA returns Top five (5) nominees by category to TTMA.

44th Annual Tejano Music Awards NOMINATIONS, OFFICIAL VOTING, and CATEGORIES

A. NOMINATIONS

Originate from record companies, group managers, artists, and/or representative. TTMA reviews and submits nominations list to the Nominating and Screening Committee for verification and eligibility. TTMA does not nominate any artist. This is solely the responsibility of the record companies, group managers, artists, and/or representative. Two CD's or two USB's must be submitted with the nomination(s) for verification of eligibility. USB's must contain CD cover photo and copyright sign ©. NO EXCEPTIONS.

B. OFFICIAL VOTING

Master list of nominations is submitted by the record companies, group managers, artists, and/or the representative and is placed on the TTMA web site for the industry to select the top twelve (12) nominees. The top twelve (12) nominees are then placed on the TTMA web site for the general public to vote for the top five (5) nominees in each category.

C. QUALIFYING PERIOD

All material must have been released in the qualifying period of January 01, 2023, through December 31, 2023. In all categories, artist must have actively performed within the eligibility period.

Albums must be released during the eligibility period to be eligible in every category except for Song of the Year. Each category must have at least five (5) but no less than three (3) eligible nominations to be considered as a viable category.

NOTE: The TTMA board of directors reserves the right to make changes as needed to the criteria, categories, nominations process, or voting process presented in this document.

44th Annual Tejano Music Awards

“SONG OF THE YEAR” CRITERIA

(New artist Do Not qualify in this category)

- A. Single must have been released in 2022 or 2024 but must be included in a CD released during the eligibility period of January 01, 2023, through December 31, 2023. This year digital releases released during the eligible periods mentioned above will qualify in this category only. Submitted singles will not qualify for any future Tejano Music Awards.
- B. Singles released prior to the CD release will be eligible and will only qualify in the “Song of the Year” category. CD must be released during the eligibility period is based on single or CD’s release date per criteria above.

Singles released in compilation CD (i.e.) “The Best of” are eligible if the single was not previously released or submitted. Artists’ or groups nominating in the Best New Artist categories do not qualify in this or any other category except for Collaboration of the Year category.
- C. Songs re-released are not eligible if the song was previously submitted for consideration previously. Songs that received minimal airplay will be considered, on a case – by – case basis as decided by the Nominating and Screening Committee.
- D. Only two (2) singles from any album may be nominated during the eligibility period. If both singles become top qualified nominees; the record label and artist will select one song as a finalist to avoid splitting an artist’s vote since it works against the artist. Artist and/or group may only have one single or track nominated in this category.
- E. Include songwriter name and contact information.

44th Annual Tejano Music Awards

ALBUM OF THE YEAR CRITERIA

(New artist Do Not qualify in this category)

To qualify in the “Album of the Year” category, sixty percent (60%) of the music tracks must be new (never recorded by the group or artists) or original renditions. Original renditions will be judged and qualified by the Nominating and Screening committee. Album must be released during the eligibility period and be nominated by the deadline date. Best of or Anniversary CD’s must meet the criteria mentioned above.
